Brynovsky play Reggae Night in Moniaive

Dumfries & Galloway's new dub & reggae act, Brynovsky, are putting on a reggae night in Moniaive featuring the band and a selection of established DJs. The event is to launch the debut album, Hard Curves, which we officially released on December 17th 2010.

The 5 piece band, all from the Moniaive and Thornhill area, formed in July last year. They are set for a series of gigs this year and are also working on material for their next two albums. Hard Curves is available on iTunes, Amazon, Barnstorm Records or direct from <http://www.brynovsky.co.uk>

Doors are at 8pm and the band are expected on stage some time after 10pm. The evening will close at 1am and admission will be £5 on the door.
